MBS telehealth cheat sheet: 1 November 2026

Every GP video and phone item, beside the in-person item it stands in for, with its fee.

Every item, its rules, and its MBS sources

Before you bill by video or phone

- Only for a patient registered with your practice in MyMedicare, or one you, or your practice, gave a face-to-face service in the last 12 months. This is the 12-month rule. AN.1.1
- The longer phone consults, 91900 and 91910, are only for a patient registered with your practice in MyMedicare. AN.0.9 91900 91910
- An earlier video or phone consult doesn't count as face to face. AN.1.1
- The 12-month rule doesn't apply to a baby under 12 months, a person experiencing homelessness, someone living in a declared natural disaster area, a patient of an Aboriginal Medical Service or Aboriginal Community Controlled Health Service, or someone isolating under a COVID-19 public health order. AN.1.1
- Nor to urgent video in unsociable hours, the sexual and reproductive health and blood-borne virus items, focussed psychological strategies and eating disorder therapy, or preparing and reviewing a GP care plan. AN.1.1
- A mental health treatment plan by video isn't exempt: the 12-month rule applies. AN.0.56
- Write the exemption, and your clinical reasoning, in the patient's notes at the time. AN.1.1
- Not for a patient admitted to hospital. AN.0.47 TN.4.15
